

1. How can soft skills make you a better employee?

Soft skills make you a better employee by getting along with coworkers and supervisors through communication, adaptability, work ethic, and interpersonal skills.

2. What is your strongest soft skill? Which one do you think will set you apart from other candidates?

My strongest soft skill is either technology skills or research skills. My current position requires me to use technology to research and locate MIA students.